

A black and white photograph capturing a scene of two cowboys on horseback in a field. The cowboys are positioned on the left and right sides of the frame, both wearing wide-brimmed hats and heavy jackets. They are riding dark horses. In the center, two dogs are visible, one larger and one smaller, both appearing to be herding or working dogs. The ground is covered in tall, dry grass. The background is a bright, overexposed sky. The overall mood is quiet and focused.

Special thanks to
Eagle Valley old-timer, Fred Riggs,
for getting me out of my Richland office, cluttered with broken hard drives and unpayed bills,
and taking me up
to photograph a small part of the Fall Round-up.
